

ROBERT-JAN TEMMINK – QUADRANT CHAMBERS, LONDON

Robert-Jan Temmink is a barrister, arbitrator and mediator specialising in commercial law. He is described in the legal directories as "a multi-talented litigator with a flair for international arbitrations" and is known for "getting to the point quickly, presenting information clearly and powerfully". Solicitors describe him in the legal directories as a "fierce advocate" with a "commanding court presence". He was called to the bar in 1996 and practices from Quadrant Chambers in London in the fields of aviation, construction, shipping, energy and insolvency. Many of his cases have an international element and he practises in the Dubai International Financial Centre Courts as well as being called to the bar in Northern Ireland and as a Foreign Legal Consultant in the State of New York. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Arbitrators and has appeared as Counsel or Arbitrator in a wide variety of arbitral proceedings under different institutions' rules. He has been teaching advocacy for the Middle Temple for 12 years and now trains advocacy teachers for the Inn. Further details can be found at <http://bit.ly/quadRJT>
