

Armando Ambrosio

International lawyer and mediator, specialised in the fields of corporate law, mergers & acquisitions and international contracts.

Resident partner of the Moscow office of the law firm De Berti Jacchia, he regularly assists foreign companies doing business in Russia and other CIS countries with reference to corporate and commercial law, international contracts, mergers & acquisitions and ADR methods.

Graduated in law from the University of Naples, during his studies he was invited as visiting foreign student at the Moscow State University (MGU).

Subsequently, he gained the Diploma in Maritime and Export Law with the City of London Polytechnic and the Master in International Business Law (LL.M.) with the University of London (KCL), focusing, in particular, on international trade law, law of investments and foreign trade with Eastern Europe, Russia and other CIS countries.

During his career he worked with leading international law firms in London, Luxemburg, New York and Moscow.

Mediator for civil and commercial disputes, qualified at AIA (Brussels) for having successfully completed the European Mediation Training for Practitioners of Justice, he is admitted to practice as mediator with some of the principal mediation centers of the CIS.

Professor of the course on “Mediation and other dispute resolution processes” for postgraduate students at the Pericles Law Center of Moscow.

Member of the Committee of the International Trade Center (Geneva) responsible for drafting the standard models of international contracts for SMEs.

Ranked by the international legal directory Chambers Global (www.chambersandpartners.com) as regional expert in cross-border transactions in the Corporate/M&A sector for the CIS countries in more jurisdictions (Italy and Russia in 2011-2019, Ukraine in 2011-2012).

Author of numerous articles and interviews related to Russia and CIS countries in national and international magazines and newspapers, he regularly cooperates with the law magazine “Diritto 24” edited by Il Sole 24-Ore, with a column entitled "Russia & CIS Monitor".

Speaker at numerous conferences and seminars on topics related to Russia and other CIS countries.

Languages spoken: Italian (mother tongue), English, Russian, French and Spanish.